COUNTY NEWS NOTES.

To insure insertion ALL correspondence must be in this office by Monday night of each week, and that nearby on Monday morning.

Our correspondents are derelict in duty and we want to say that henceforth they will not receive papers except for the week they have news letters. We are dependent upon them for the news and when they fail to send in their favors they put us to great inconvenience.

SUNNY SIDE.

Hurrah! for the Hazel Green academy.

It rained so hard Sunday that we never got to sleep the pigs.

Little Rosa and Carry Coldiron went to their grandfather Brook's Saturday.

We never saw a harder rain fall than fell the twenty-fifth. Wonder how many of the old farmers got their turnips sowed.

We are indebted to Elza and Howard James for erecting a new gate at the road near the Gibbs property. It was badly needed.

Mrs. W. H. Johns and two little daughters, Lisle and Mary, of Coburn, Va., in company with Miss Mollie Swango, of the Springs, gave us a pleasant call Friday.

No wonder Uncle Bill McNabb flew when he went to Devils creek last week. If he hadn't, he would have got his wings scorched, then Aunt Liza would have raised sand.

Died at the home of J. E. Brooks, Saturday, of cholera infantum, an infant child of Mrs. Dora Bailey, aged nine months, and was laid to rest in the Brooks grave yard Sunday.

Sleep on little ponder,
And take your rest,
God called you home,
Because he thought it best.

Ye scribe received a letter from Miss Mary Brenaman, of Newport, last week. She said that she had just received THE HERALD, and must turn to Sunny Side at once to get the news. What a pity that poor child got disappointed.

Things got to be very suspicious when a young man spends the evening with a young lady and strikes out to Campton with her "pap" the next day. It takes a great deal of music to do "Shiner," but he's a preacher and gets the good things.

Lizabeth Ann seems to think that we may be a preacher's wife some day and get the coveted gray, but we don't want to be a preacher's wife, for she gets little or no gray, for he eats at your table and she eats at his. See, gray is the healthiest vegetable that grows.

We sent a copy of last week's HERALD to our sister, and what a shine that poor child did cut. She said that she devoured its contents as a hungry man would devour food. It is so strange that we never know how we appreciate a good thing until we have to do without it. That child shall have the paper every week, if Uncle Sam is willing.

Miss Mary B. and Eliza Taulbee were visiting the family of Harry Terrill last Sunday.

Sherman Cope attended the convention at Paintsville, returning last Friday.

Willie Cope was visiting friends and relatives in this section Saturday and Sunday.

Uncle Geo. Carpenter, whose illness was reported last week, we are sorry to say is worse this week.

Uncle Silas Taulbee and daughter, Miss Caroline, attended a funeral on Johnson last Sunday, and report a nice time.

Incidentally we learned that Judge Geo. Wheeler, of your town, has been on the south fork of Frozen. Say, Judge, was the widow at home.

According to the old people's maxim it will rain throughout dogdays, and seems it is literally true this season as it has rained nearly every day for the past two or three weeks.

Haldeman's Speech.

In his address Mr. Haldeman said: "Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of the committee—In the campaign of 1896 there came to us who were associated in the committee work of the national democratic party a closeness, not only of political affiliation, but a personal regard and esteem that time can not and will not destroy. I do not know the individual sentiment of a member of this committee, but as honest men we will at this meeting state frankly our views. I do not today, any more than in 1896, when I stated my determination to sever my connection with this committee if it saw fit to accept one dollar from a republican source, believe that honesty or integrity in the administration of our government can be found in the republican party. In 1896 I took upon myself abundant abuse from Kentucky democrats, and I did it because I believed, with my friend and commander, Henry Watterson, in the righteousness of a refusal to compromise with dishonor on the question of a sound and stable currency. I believed then that the national honor in the stability of its money was involved, and if I believed that in this respect there was any danger, now, I would stand today against the regular democratic organization. No sane man believes this danger exists. The free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1 without the consent of any other nation has been relegated to another generation by this nation. It is a past issue.

"My heart goes out to those who struggle for liberty in every nation, and I applaud and approve the expression in the democratic platform sympathizing with the Boers—a people who may be robbed of free citizenship in order to enable English greed to gather to its coffers the diamonds and gold of South Africa. Only in the interests of her own selfish purposes does England desire the amity of the United States of America. This republican administration seems to love England more than it loves its own country—the great republic—which today is first in power, honor and place amongst the nations of the world. We can not, we must not encourage a weak and corrupt administration to barter free institutions and civil liberty in a combination with the most autocratic, arrogant and selfish power in Europe.

WILL SUPPORT BRYAN.

"I am compelled, with a sense of what is due to the free American that I love, to earnestly, actively support an American who I believe loves his country and whom I believe to be the highest and best type of an American citizen, and thus believing I shall vote for and support William Jennings Bryan."

"Gentlemen, I shall not encroach upon the time or patience of this committee in bringing before it the political conditions exist in the state of Kentucky. No man, who is self-respecting, can in our state, support a governor by assassination. When that great friend of the common people, William Geobel, was foully, cruelly murdered—there was and is before us in Kentucky an issue that reaches far beyond any national issue. Murder must and shall be punished under and within the law, even if Indiana has to elect another governor who will recognize the just and legal bequest of a sister state, in demanding a fugitive from justice."
